

COVID-19

New Zealand Government

Testing permitted workers crossing alert level boundaries

To safeguard areas of New Zealand at lower alert levels, and to ensure COVID-19 is contained - surveillance testing of permitted workers crossing the alert level boundary is going to be implemented immediately.

- | Use | Setting up | Checking test status | Ongoing support |
|---|--|----------------------|-----------------|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Employers can find out if they are impacted by the Alert Level Order by visiting the Ministry of Health website. 2. Employers will use evidence of permitted travel, such as BTD, work order or employer letter. For more information please visit here. 3. FAQs and clear guidance is available here. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Some larger employers may engage a private provider to do on-site testing. Visit the Ministry of Health website for more information. 5. No infringement notices will be issued, workers will be unable to cross the boundary until they have a test | | |

Checklist

- | | | | |
|--|--------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Review processes so clear of obligations | <input type="checkbox"/> | Confirm all tests are arranged | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Notify all impacted workers of obligations | <input type="checkbox"/> | Monitor test records of workers | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| All workers have business travel docs | <input type="checkbox"/> | Ensure workers know proof required | <input type="checkbox"/> |